

Gail Barber
Harpist: performer, composer, recording artist, and professor

Gail Barber | Concerts | Workshops and Retreats | Professor, Texas Tech University
Harp Lessons | Music Therapy | CDs | Video | Sheet Music | Order Form | Links

weddings

For information on harp music for weddings, please use the contact link at the bottom of this page.

"It has given me great joy to hear and work with the wonderful harpist and teacher, Gail Barber. She is the best harpist I know . . . a true artist, musician, soloist . . . highly skilled . . . sensitive. She has my greatest admiration."

Alan Hovhaness

Gail Barber is a world renowned harpist and composer. She is recognized for her sensitivity and color. Gail is a professor of music at Texas Tech University and has performed internationally both with orchestras and as a soloist. To listen to her music, click on the links below.

Reinhold Glière

Concerto for Harp and Orchestra

in E-flat major, Op. 74

Gurer Aykal, Conductor, Lubbock Sinfonietta

- I. Allegro moderato
- II. Tema con variazioni
- III. Allegro giocoso

Abridged Original Composition by Gail Barber

A Turkish Fantasy

© Gail Barber 2001

Original Music

Prayer

Gail Barber, harpist

Voices of Angels

Imploring: In the Presence

In the Cloister

Garden of Paradise: Meditation

more recordings ➤

Gail Barber, Harpist

Gail Barber
Box 53190
Lubbock, TX 79453, USA

Phone: 806-799-3320; Fax: 806-799-5528

Email

Copyright by Gail Barber 1997 and 2014
Graphic Design by Damien Francoeur